SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a location monitoring program for 2 years. The defendant shall be monitored using voice verification, radio frequency, or global positioning system (GPS) technology as determined by the probation officer. The defendant shall be monitored under the following restrictions: The defendant is restricted to his residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; court obligations; or discretionary leave activities as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall not be required to pay the costs of location monitoring.
2. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or have access to any on-line service without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office. The defendant's cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, allowing installation of a computer and Internet monitoring program and/or identifying computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access. Monitoring may include random examinations of computer systems along with Internet, electronic, and media storage devices under the defendant's control. The computer system or devices may be removed for a more thorough examination, if necessary. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the U.S.
3. The defendant shall not possess, view, access, or otherwise use material that reflects extremist or terroristic views or as deemed to be inappropriate by the U.S. Probation Office.
4. The defendant shall complete an immediate assessment or participate in a program for substance abuse as approved by the probation officer upon release or relapse during his term of probation. That program may include testing and inpatient or outpatient treatment, counseling, or a support group. Further, the defendant shall contribute to the costs of such treatment as determined by the Probation Office Co-Payment Program, not to exceed the total cost of treatment.
5. The defendant shall participate in a mental health counseling program as approved by the probation officer. This program may include psychological/psychiatric counseling or treatment, family counseling, and mentor support.
6. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or an area under the defendant's control to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or supervised designee, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a supervision violation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or third parties that the premises and areas under the defendant's control may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
7. The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including credit reports, credit card bills, bank statements, and telephone bills.
8. The defendant must cooperate with probation in preparing a post-conviction investigation report.
9. The defendant must not apply for a passport.
10. If not employed at a regular lawful occupation, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer, or attending post-secondary school full-time, the defendant may be required to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed. The defendant may also participate in training, counseling, daily job search, or other employment-related activities, as directed by the probation officer.
11. The defendant shall reside for a period of 2 additional months, for a total of 5 months, in a residential reentry center as approved by the probation officer and shall observe the rules of that facility.
